Costume/Parent Observation Week

Next week classes will be open to our parents for observation. We are extremely proud of our students work and hope that you will come and show your support. These classes will also include time for costume measurements to be taken for the end of year productions. Please be sure that at least one parent is present during each class to attend to your child's needs. Costume payments are due by November 20th.

Costumes

LPA offers all students the opportunity to participate in an end-of-the-year showcase. Each student is responsible for purchasing his or her own costume. Costumes are selected by the instructor and approved by the director. Costume cost is $55 per costume if paid by November 20th, 2010. Late costume orders will be accepted until January 31, 2010, with a late charge of $15 per costume. Costume payments are non-refundable

Showcase Fee

A $35 showcase fee applies to all families. This fee helps cover the rental of the theatre, sound and lighting technicians, and props and sets. For those families with more than one student, an additional $15 per student after the first will apply.

End of Year Performance Dates

June 16 and 17th

(June 13-15th Some students may have mandatory rehearsals depending on involvement)
