Around The World In 80 Days

Tickets are now on sale for our mid-year ballet production. This performance will benefit the Snoezelen Foundation, which works with children who have severe disabilities. 100% of the money raised through tickets sales will be profit and then divided equally by the foundation and LaBelle Performing Arts. We are really hoping to raise 31,000 by selling 636 seats!! That's about $15,500.00 for each organization!! Please help us by purchasing a ticket and making this a reality for years to come. You can purchase tickets at the front desk.

When: Saturday January, 12

Where: Booker T. Washington Auditorium

What: Reception beginning at 5:45 and performance starts at 7:00

THANK YOU SPONSORS

I want to take this opportunity to say thank you to those who have given sponsorship money to help with the mid-year ballet production. We have almost reached our goal of $5,000.00!!!

Rehearsals for Mid-Year Ballet

After Thanks Giving Break we will begin having rehearsals more often in order to clean and pull our performance together. Please do not plan on missing rehearsal for any reason other than school events or emergency's. It is imperative that everyone be in attendance and know their parts. We have worked really hard to put this together and now it's time to buckle down and tighten up the show. Im so proud of all of you and know it will be great. Thank you for your hard work!!

Registration for Classes

Registration will be closed for all classes in February. Please encourage anyone who may be interested in registering to do it now!!
